Davis, Assistan District-Attorney, in opening the case explained that at the time of Furrin's fire there was a strike in the clothing trades in Brooklyn, in which Furrin was engaged, and needed money. After the testimony of two firemen had been given Noyes F. Palmer, who lives at No. 150 Snedeker avenue, testified that on the night in question he heard a terrific explosion just after he had retired. He ran to the window. The house at No. 146 was all aflame and the smell of naphtha permeated the air. He turned in an alarm at the nearest fire box. When he got back to his house he saw a man run out of the rear of No. 146. The man was wringing his hands.

"Are you burned?" he asked the man. "I don't know; I don't know," was the reply. The man was very much excited. The Firebug Identified.

DOWN, TOO.

Coal Stocks Rally on a Report That President Wilbur, of the Leihgh Valley, Would Retire.

Wall Street, Monday, March 8. The foreign situation continued the dominating influence to-day. Public advices if sing sing prison, was taken to Brook ign yesterday to be used as a witness in the trial of Davis Furrin, charged with arson in the first degree. He will probably be called to-day.

Furrin is a Polish Jew, fifty years old. He is accused of permitting a fire in his house, No. 146 Snedeker avenue, Brooklyn, on the night of November 18, 1894. He occupied the upper floor, with his wife and six children. Alfred Steinberg, now under arrest, occupied the lower floor. Furrin's arrest was brought about by the confessions of Schoenholz and Steinberg. A number of other arrests of alleged firebugs were of the decline in wheat. The flour market was more active and lower. Sales were en 18,000 bushels for export. No. 2 red wheat was quoted at 84%094%c. free on board affoat; No. 1 Northern, New York, 87%c. free on board affoat; No. 1 Northern, Duluth, 85%c. free on board affoat; No. 1 Northern, Duluth, were not favorable when the market open-

Sugar was affected adversely by reports from Wash-ington that the most influential men on the House Ways and Means Committee favored reduction of the defferential in favor of efined sugar. Covering of short con. $805,000. tracts in sympathy with the general and the price of the stock, but there was a quiet selling pressure, and it falled to make any gain for the day.

Manhattan was very weak and closed with a net loss of 1% per cent after having lost as much as 2½ per cent after having lost as much as 2½ per cent after having lost as much as 2½ per cent after having lost as much as 2½ per cent after having lost as much as 2½ per cent after having lost as the divided in opinion as to the advisability of reducing the dividend at to-morrow's meeting, but the action of the stock appeared to indicate that the reduction would be made despite this difference of opinion.

Jersey Central was very weak in the morning, dropping 2 per cent for reasons well known. In the afternoon it railied with the remainder of the coal stocks on a report that President Wilbur, of the Lehigb Valley road, would retire at the annual election, closing with a fractional decline. How much the other coal roads would benefit by President Wilbur's retirement is not clear to the average comprehension. What is very clear and is not known in Wall street is that the anthracite coal trade has fallen into the very dregs of adversity. The alleged combine was forced to reduce prices 25 cents last month by returning to the July, 1896, schedule of prices. They aunounced with a flourish of trumpeta that this schedule would be maintained at all hazards, and yet since that reduction rates have been cut 20 to 60 cents per ton.

The combine is virtually broken. Each company is scrambiling for business at any price, and a fierce but covert way is raging.

"L" MAGNATES DISAGREE, Gould and Sage at Odds Over the Question of Reducing Manhattan " Dividends. Manhattan Elevated Railroad stock was weak yesterday on a report that the divi-dend which will be declared to-day will be on the basis of 4 per cent per annum rather than 6 per cent, which has been paid heretofore. There was a conference of the directors in the afternoon concerning the dividend, which developed the fact that Russell Sage was in favor of reducing the dividend, Sage was in favor of reducing the dividend, while a strong interest was arrayed against him. Chief among the opposition was George J. Gould, who, however, said that he was open to conviction that a reduction was the proper thing.

In well informed circles it is said that as Mr. Gould votes so will the decision be. Mr. Sage has been in favor of a reduction and has declared himself openly on that side. The Street generally believes that the dividend will be cut down as the price of the stock indicates. It opened at 86%, advanced to 87%, reacted to 84% and closed at 85%.

It has been known for some time that the Manhattan Elevated Road was paying dividends when none were carned. To provide for the additional amount the "surplus" has been used. Mortimer Hendricks, in his complaint against the company, claims that this "surplus" is a mere matter of "bookkeepsig." and that as far as "actual cash" is concerned there is no surplus.

Russell Sage, when seen yesterday, re-

"actual cash" is concerned there is no surplus.
Russell Sage, when seen yesterday, refused to discuss the question of a difference of opinion among the directors. In relation to the dividend, he said: "The amount of the dividend will not be declared until tomorrow. I have noticed that some times when you think you know what will be done at a meeting of directors you find you were mistaken. I can tell better what the Manhattan dividend will be to-morrow."

The members of the Executive Committee, who meet before the meeting of the full Board of Directors and practically decide the dividend matter, are George and Howard Gould, Russell Sage, Samuel Sloan and R. M. Gallaway.
